

Prov IV and V
Creation Care
Aug 2, 2021

Guest: Phoebe Chatfield

Deacon joey, Louisiana-- sustained island home second push. One of six dioceses, ecumenical kickoff,

Pam Harris-- N IN-- raising awareness, holy hikes, People concentrate on central IN. Ranger led walk through a peat bog. Community garden. Creation care sunday, will encourage people to garden with native plants, pay more attention to local environment,

Jerry-- will tweak all his liturgy to Creation-- P of P. Eucharistic prayers C & D,

Catherine-- Pilgrimage to gun sites, indigenous people day, at ALI Saints doing a pilgrimage and thanks for harvest. Sermons

Jane-- river turned red, covered it all over now. The committee is beginning to talk to the historical tours around mineral point to tell the story about how people made money, then became ashamed and covered it up and now a big rec area.

Lella-- alabama-- documentary series on healing and hope in a time of ecological crisis. Lella will preach. CLimate resilience programming pilot. Brugmansia ministries.

Kevin McGrane-- very new. Bang the drum. Speaker series. Agriculture, wineries, book clubs. Emphasize issues in liturgies. Educational campaign

Jim Mogensen-- Ann Arbor, had Covid surge in spring, just getting back into garden. Harvesting from community garden, putting solar panels on churches. Working on energy initiatives and grants

Gregg-- using SOC guides to incorporate into services. Haybale gardens because they don't have grass or yard space. Celebration of harvest. Will also use as a kickoff to look at the future of what they can do. Would like to turn an unused slope into a shared garden.

PHOEBE COP26-- there are opportunities to apply to be a delegate, there are also public events. Please pass along application to anyone, especially young adults, Black, Indigenous, LGBTQ etc should apply. Pray for progress
<https://www.episcopalchurch.org/ministries/creation-care/cop26/>

<https://www.hybridvigormusic.org/sing/>

Items from the chat:

00:34:16 Phoebe Chatfield: Outdoor events in gardens/community gardens can be a great COVID-safe option for SoC events

00:39:48 Elliott Bush: When is Indigenous People's Day?

00:40:25 Alison Ricker, Ohio: Monday Oct. 11, 2021

00:40:36 Dave Thomson: October 11 We celebrate it on 10/10

00:46:21 Phoebe Chatfield: Avery Lamb is awesome and was just named co-ED of Creation Justice Ministries

00:48:26 Lella Lowe: <https://www.brugmansiaministries.org/>

00:55:02 Jerry: Here is an interesting opportunity for COP26:
<https://www.hybridvigormusic.org/sing/>

00:57:01 Phoebe Chatfield: <https://www.episcopalchurch.org/ministries/creation-care/cop26/>

01:09:28 Elliott Bush: Is there an address for the US Delegation where we can express our concern?

01:10:01 Phoebe Chatfield: creation@episcopalchurch.org is a great place to send COP questions/feedback

01:10:13 Phoebe Chatfield: And then for the US delegation I'm not sure @Elliot but I'll look into it

01:10:29 Phoebe Chatfield: pchatfield@episcopalchurch.org

01:10:36 Alison Ricker, Ohio: ccl.us/senate to ask Senators for a price on carbon

01:11:18 Jerry: The CRE Events page: <https://new.sewanee.edu/cre/upcoming-events/>.
And follow us on Twitter! The Center for Religion and Environment