Ongoing trainings and events:

Sin Fronteras/Without Borders is a community and space dedicated to reading, reflecting, praying, and exploring practices that will foster a more informed understanding of the history, present realities, and humanitarian needs of migrants on the US/Mexico border. Over the course of six-weeks (starts October 28 meeting every other week) we will, read, reflect, and pray for the humanitarian crisis unfolding on the US/Mexico border using Miguel de la Torre's book, The Immigration Crisis: Towards an Ethics of Place.

Co-leaders: Padre David Ulloa Chavez, Missioner for Border Ministries, Episcopal Diocese of Arizona and Rev. Mike Wallens, Co-Chair of Rio Grande Borderland Ministries, Vicar at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Marfa, TX.; Priest-in-charge, St. James Episcopal, Alpine, TX. For information how to join this zoom-call, reach out to Padre David at david@azdiocese.org or Vicki Hesse vhesse@edomi.org.

Sacred Ground: A Film-Based Dialogue Series on Race & Faith, from the Episcopal church. This curriculum is being used all around our province, by congregations and regions alike. This site includes extensive resources for facilitators and getting started: <https://episcopalchurch.org/sacred-ground>
